OTTAWA FOOTBALL CLUB

STURDY OTTAWA FOOTBALL TEAM OF THE EIGHTIES

This team wore the Ottawa colors in 1886—and they were yellow and black. They played English rugby, when a "scrimmage" meant just that. In the back row, left to right, are: Edward Taylor (dead), J. Whyte, J. A. Seybold (dead), A. T. Phillips (dead), F. C. Anderson.

Middle row: J. A. Groul, E. A. Nash, Col. P. B. Taylor, C. Jackson Booth, W. C. Little (dead).

Front row: B. T. A. Bell (dead), J. A. D. Holbrook, William Lawless (dead), J. W. Shore, Harry Cameron (dead).
