OTTAWA ROUGH RIDERS
BIG FOUR FINALISTS

Their Backs are To The Wall — Facing a fifteen-point deficit in their Big Four title series with Montreal Alouettes, as the result of Wednesday's 22-7 defeat in Montreal, Ottawa Rough Riders are ready to make a last ditch stand against Lew Hayman's footballers at Lansdowne Park this afternoon. Come fair weather or foul, the Ottawans must overcome that Montreal lead or pass from the 1949 gridiron picture. The Riders shown above are: Front row, left to right, Bert Haigh, Wilf Tremblay, Bill LaRoche, George Hall, Johnny Dengel, Alex Carson, Gerry
